≠ Admission Day Celebration - 1850 (CAL-1159)

Structure

History: Watercolor by Francis Marryatt of the official celebration of Admission Day on Oct. 29, 1850. California had been admitted to the Union in Sept. 9, 1850. News reached San Francisco via Steamer Oregon which fired signal guns when approaching the port to alert the citizens. An address, by N. Bennett, and the recital of an ode, by Mrs. Wells, climaxed the parades, with a grand ball at night.
